~~Mastering Superforecasting
How to be a superforecaster?~~

- ① Triage - Focus on questions where your hardwork is likely to <sup>be</sup> paid off. Pay off problems.
- ② break seemingly intractable items into tractable sub items problems.
- ③ strive the right balance between inside views & outside views.
- ④ strive the right balance between under & over reaching to the evidence.
- ⑤ look for the clashing causal forces at work in each problem.
- ⑥ strive to distinguish as many degrees of doubt as the problem permits but no more.
- ⑦ strive the right balance between under and over confidence between prudence & decisiveness.
- ⑧ look for the errors behind your mistakes but beware of rear view mirror hindsight [high hindsight biases ↗]
- ⑨ bring out the best in others & let others bring out the best in you.
- ⑩ master the error balancing bicycle.

Learning requires training (not just reading books).

* Punctuation Marks & Minor

- ① Colon
- ② Question Mark
- ③ Exclamation Mark
- ④ Quotation Mark
- ⑤ Parenthesis
- ⑥ Hyphen
- ⑦ Dash.

→ Sentence Structure:

- Every sentence has a subject and a verb e.g., Karen ran

The diagram illustrates the sentence "Karen ran". The word "Karen" is positioned above the word "ran", with a vertical line connecting them. Above "Karen", there is a small mark resembling a checkmark or a tick. Below "Karen", there is a small mark resembling a slash. Below "ran", there is a small mark resembling a backslash. To the right of "ran", there is a small mark resembling a checkmark or a tick.
  - Every sentence must have at least 2 words.

→ Simple Sentence

The chairs needs to be cleaned.

One side      Subject      Verb.

Compound Sentence

Simple sentence : One independent clause.

A group of words that can stand alone.

→ Compound sentence: Two complete clauses.

e.g. The chairs need to be cleaned and the tables need to be repaired

However, clauses with a subject and verb may not always be independent.

e.g.,

Even though the chairs need to be cleaned,
the tables will be repainted first.

→ Complex sentences: Two clauses: one independent and one dependent.

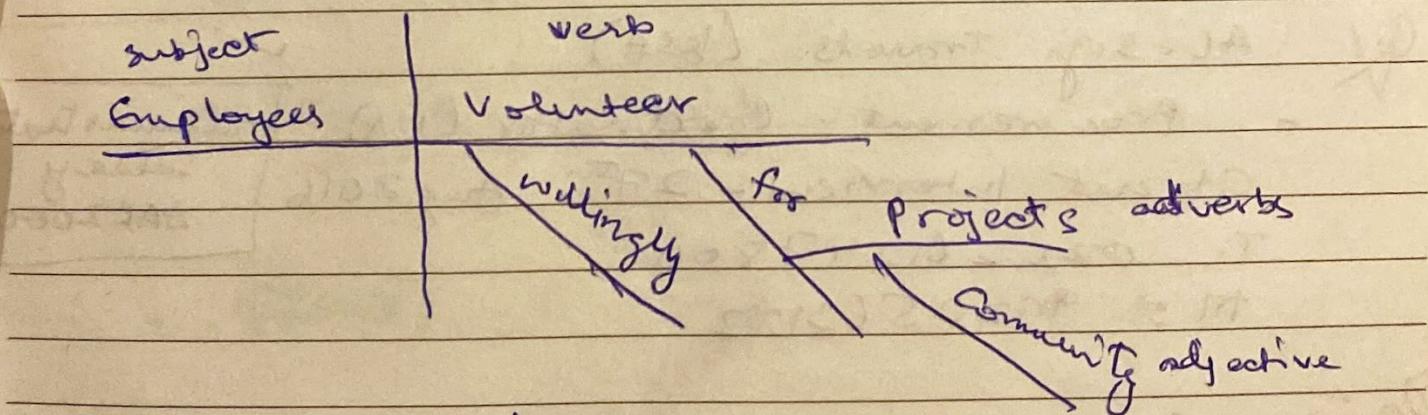

- ① Bayt / Naukri ✓
 ② Upwork / Freelancer ✗
 ③ Bangalore Visit ✓ Done 05/07/2016 to 23/08/2016

→ Compound - Complex Sentence : Even though the chairs need to be cleaned, the tables will be repaired first; then the desks will be repainted.

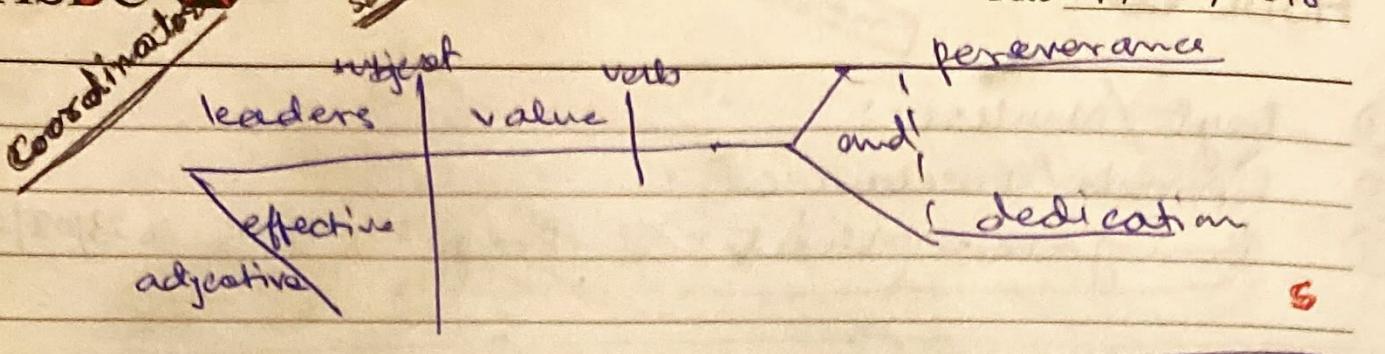

Three clauses: One dependent, two independent.

→ Diagramming Sentences: Visual representation of how the parts of a sentence fit together

e.g., Employees volunteer willingly for community projects (Simple Sentence)

Effective leaders value perseverance and dedication (Simple Sentence)

- 3 stages of man's transgression and rebellion against God:

- ① The first stage is that one acknowledges in principle that obedience to God is right, but disregards it in practice.
This is Fisq (transgression).
- ② The second stage is that one not only disobeys but also ~~too~~ rejects obedience in principle, and thus either refuses to become the subject of anyone at all, or adopts someone other than God as ~~as~~ the object of service and devotion.
This is Kufr (infidelity).
- ③ The third stage is that one not only rebels against one's Lord but also imposes one's own will (in disregard of the will of God), on God's world and creatures.
Anyone who reaches such a point is termed a Taghut. And no one can be a true believer in God ~~or~~ unless the authority of a such a Taghut, (evil one) is rejected.

④

O, believers! Do not devour one another's possessions wrongfully; rather than that, let there be trading by mutual consent. You shall not kill yourselves. Surely, Allah is ever Compassionate to you!

Note: The expression 'wrongfully' embraces all transactions which are opposed to righteoussness and which are either legally and/or morally reprehensible. By contrast, trade signifies the mutual transfer of benefits between the parties concerned, such as that underlying those transactions in which one person provides whatever satisfies the needs of another person and is paid in return.

'Mutual Consent' means, that the exchange should be free of undue pressure, fraud and deception.

Fraudulent transactions also seem to be based on the mutual consent of the parties concerned. That kind of consent however, is based on the false assumption that no fraud is involved in the transaction. Nobody who knew he would be subject to fraud would consent to the be a party to that transaction.

(4:20)

And whoever does this by way of transgression, and injustice shall be surely cast into the fire; that indeed is quite easy for Allah.

(4:31) But if you avoid the major sins which you have been forbidden, we shall remit your (trivial) offences, and cause you to enter an honorable abode.

- The Merciful Servant → Al Baqarah (the Ring Structure)
- Divided into 9 groups

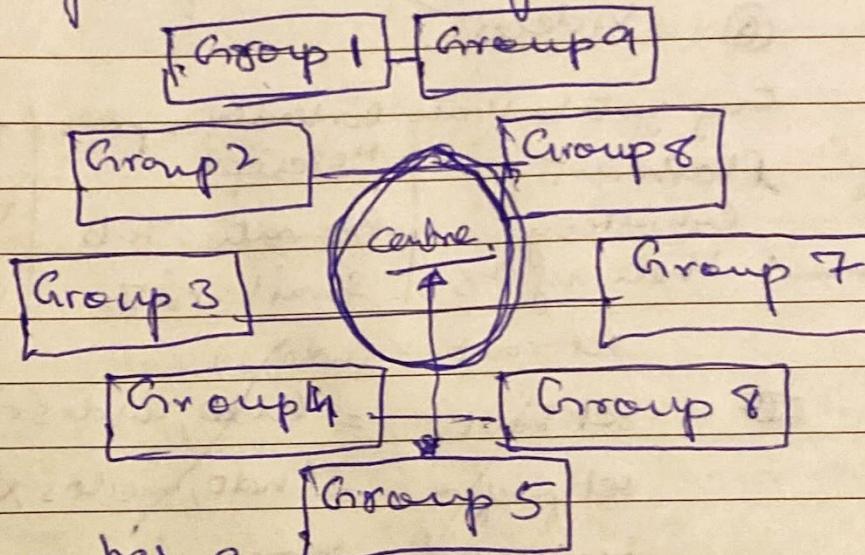

G1 (Faith & Unbelief) ↔ G9 (Faith & Unbelief)

G2 (Creation & Knowledge) ↔ G8 (Creation & Knowledge)

G3 (Laws Given to Israelites) ↔ G7 (Laws given to Muslims)

G4 (Abraham was Tested) → G6 (Muslims will be Tested)

G5 (Change in Direction of Muslim Prayer), V143

- Each group has a strong composition, of its own.

The highest created angels who report directly to God are as follows:

- a) Archangels
- b) Seraphs & Cherubs.

(Refer to DL Bible)

Archangels are the leaders of the hierarchy of angels so they have angels under them and who answer to them. However, seraphs & cherubs are not involved in administration and they do not have angels under them — they stay in the presence of God and worship him.

→ Sheikul Islam, Muhammad Bin Abdul Wahab was a renowned religious scholar & a great reformer of his times. He held a unique and unparalleled position as an exponent of Qur'aan, Hadith and different branches of knowledge. With his intellect and a deep grasp over the religious learning, he impressed the high ranking contemporary scholars and brought them around his own viewpoints.

In his works, sheikul Islam not only elaborated the Qur'aan & Sunnah but also uprooted the polytheistic views and made a hard struggle to eradicate the heresies and accretions.
